ROBERT W. LEHRBURGER, United States Magistrate Judge.

As discussed at the case management conference held by telephone on November 6, 2024:

1. By November 20, 2024, the New York City Defendants, after meeting and conferring with the other defendants, shall provide Plaintiff with a proposed case management plan and schedule. By November 27, 2024, Plaintiff shall provide any comments to the New York City Defendants. The parties shall attempt to meet and confer by phone to discuss any disagreements. By December 6, 2024, the New York City Defendants shall file with the Court the proposed case management plan and schedule, noting any disagreements. Also by December 6, 2024, and after meeting and conferring as to its terms with the other defendants and with Plaintiff, the New York City Defendants shall file a proposed protective order for protection of confidential information (such as sensitive personal health information).

2. The Morning Side defendants' oral motion to stay discovery as to them pending decision on their motion to dismiss is denied.

3. If Plaintiff wants to include as defendants any of the individuals identified by Defendants in response to the Court's Valentin orders, then by November 27, 2024, Plaintiff shall file a Fifth Amended Complaint that includes those individuals by name in the caption and any relevant allegations as to their involvement. The individuals identified by Defendants are those in the Defendants' letters filed at docket numbers 190, 207, and 224.

SO ORDERED.
